- c) Each team is expected to supply a competent and suitable adult to referee one half of their game. Usually this will be the team manager or assistant. Referees must refrain from coaching their team while carrying out their duties. Referees should be familiar with "The Laws of The Game", the specific rules applicable to mini-soccer as well as local competition rules outlined below. A club who fails to supply a suitable referee will be fined £5-
- d) In accordance with the RESPECT campaign all spectators will be on the same side of a pitch and will remain back from the touchline. The manager, assistant and substitutes only will stay on the opposite side of the pitch.
- e) A team who is unable to kick-off within 15 minutes of their scheduled time will forfeit the points. The game can go ahead as a friendly for the remaining time available. Regardless of the time a fixture starts it must conclude in time for the following game to begin promptly.

Squads

- f) Under 8 teams may field a team of 7 players by mutual agreement. Both teams will field the same number of players at all times. If a team has only 5 or 6 players, or has to reduce their team during the game due to injury or other circumstance their opposition will do likewise. Under 10 games will be seven a'side. If a team is unable to field seven players their opposition are under no obligation to reduce the size of their team. Under 10 teams may not field more than 7 players. Under 12 and under 14 teams will be 8 a'side. If one team is unable to field 8 players, or has to reduce to seven during a game the other team will also play with 7 players. If one team is unable to field 7 players their opposition is under no obligation to reduce the size of their team below 7 players.

- h) In all age divisions substitutes can interchange any number of times but must enter the field from the half-way line, during a break in play with the referee's permission.
- i) All under 8 players must be offered an equal share of playing time. It is expected that all other substitutes will be given a reasonable share of playing time.

Playing Rules

Games will be conducted under F.A. mini-soccer rules except where these are amended by local competition rules as outlined below.

- j) Under 8, 10 and 12 games will consist of 20 minutes per half. Under 14 games will consist of 25 minutes per half.

- n) Goal keepers in open play can handle the ball in their areas which will extend across the full width of the pitch out to the first marker on the touchline.
- o) Other than in the under 8 division, goal kicks to be taken as normal. The kick may be taken by a player other than the keeper. Referees will be flexible in assisting under 8 keepers to get the ball into play.
- p) Other than a goal kick, goal keepers in the under 10, 12 and 14 divisions must release the ball from their hands or kick the ball from the ground. When the ball is placed on the ground it is not safe and may not be picked up again. The ball must not be bouncing when kicked.
- q) Goal keepers can handle a back-pass in the under 8 division only. A free kick from the edge of the goal area will be awarded if a keeper in the under 10, 12 or 14 divisions handles a back-pass.
- r) Goal keepers are allowed outside of their areas, but a free kick will be awarded if they handle outside their area.

- u) All free kicks are direct.
- v) Penalty kicks are taken from a point 8 yards from the centre of goal.
- w) Corners and throw-ins are taken as normal.
Note to refs. Within reason all players are expected to take throw-ins properly. Under 8, 10 and under 12 players should be given a chance to retake a foul throw. Throw-ins should be awarded to the other team in the event of foul throws in an under 14 fixture.

5. Discipline

As it is impractical to provide independent referees and due to the impact of sending off a player from a small side, red and yellow cards are not being used by referees in the League. It is essential however that players understand the importance of fair play.

- a) In the event of serious misconduct such as persistent dissent, foul and abusive language or violent conduct the referee should ask the player's team manager to withdraw the player from the game.
- b) The offender may play no further part in that game but a substitute may be sent on if available.
- c) Team managers are expected to give their cooperation to referees in such instances and to deal with their own players as outlined above when they are acting as referee.
- d) In the event of a player being sent off the referee should file a report with the League secretary within three 3 days of the incident. The player may be dealt with by a League disciplinary committee and subject to such sanctions as are judged appropriate.

6. Complaints

In order to maintain good standards and provide a positive environment for young footballers it is important that clubs are able to raise concerns with the League committee, and that these are dealt with effectively. There are two main ways for clubs to alert the league to problems or potential issues.

- 1) The new version of online team-sheets requires all managers to assess their opposition manager and assistants, spectators and players for standards of fair play. Every submission is checked by the secretary and chairman and patterns of lower scores will be noted. A committee member will be assigned to observe problem squads. This will give the committee an early warning of potential problems.
 - 2) More serious official complaints against members of other clubs or league officials, may only be made in writing through club secretaries to the league secretary and must arrive within 7 days of the incident.
 - 2.1 Clubs may be fined £10- if complaints are received which are not signed by their club secretary
 - 2.2 A cheque for £10- made payable to The Glendale League must accompany the complaint which will be refunded if it is upheld.
 - 2.3 The committee will deal with the matter within 14 days of it being received by the league secretary and communicate their decision to the secretary of the club/s concerned.
 - 2.4 Clubs will then have a further 14 days to lodge any appeal in writing to the league secretary in which case an independent appeal committee will review the matter.
